

Senior NAVAL ARCHITECT

OUR COMPANY

DEKC Maritime is an independent Dutch maritime engineering company located in Groningen with a long history in the shipbuilding industry. DEKC offers concept design, basic design, and detail engineering for new build vessels as well as operational support during the lifetime of a vessel. DEKC assists with modifications and mobilizations, and provides project-specific engineering. Our team of 45 specialists in naval architecture, structural design, mechanical engineering, and detail engineering are able to help with every idea or challenge.

JOB PROFILE

- Manage design and engineering projects, with responsibility for scope, budget, schedule and quality
- Work within projects as a senior Naval architect
- Make estimations and project plans for new design and engineering projects
- Be a recognizable specialist/point of contact for our customers and quickly anticipate on their wishes by translating these into concrete actions
- Contribute to the sales process as a technical expert
- Work on designs from concept to detail engineering, implementing innovative solutions and dare to think “out of the box”

SKILLS & EXPERIENCE

- BSc and/or MSc Degree, Naval Architecture
- Experience in maritime design & engineering (min. 5 years)
- Good communication and project management skills
- Independent work attitude
- Ability to work within a multidisciplinary team
- Willingness to increase knowledge
- Knowledge of current regulations
- Experience with software; NAPA, CADMATIC, RHINO, ACAD, Ansys AQWA etc
- Verbal and written command of the Dutch and/or English language

BENEFITS

- Room for personal/professional development
- Competitive salary
- Flexible working hours
- Informal but ambitious working atmosphere
- Attractive fringe benefits

CONTACT US

Contact Marleen Lenting, if you have any questions about the vacancy 050-5753950

Are you interested? Please send your resume with a motivational letter to career@dekc.nl